- 2. Give clear, simple accounts of what the texts mean to Christians: for example, that people can trust God, and that they should say thank you to God for his good gifts.
- 3. Describe how Christians show their beliefs: for example, thanking God in prayer.
- 4. Give at least two examples of ways in which Christians use Bible stories and texts to guide their beliefs about prayer, in their church communities and their own lives.
- 5. Think, talk and ask questions about whether Jesus' 'good news' matters to anyone other than Christians, exploring different ideas.

Explore ideas of what is good news in our society.

GOD LIKES TO GIVE GOOD THINGS IN ANSWER TO PRAYERS: LUKE 11:9-13

In the Christian community today, people pray because Jesus taught them to do so. Christians pray because they think God is listening, and sometimes God answers prayers in good or surprising ways.

Make me strong when I feel weak.
Give me courage when I feel scared.
Keep close when I feel alone.
Amen
